

Indiana Digital Citizenship Week September 12-16, 2016

Friday: Rights, Remixes, and Responsibilities

(Dress-up suggestion: Works of Art: come as a painting, favorite book, musical performer- be creative)

Our final day of Digital Citizenship Week is focused on a topic we all need to be better about understanding and modeling. Today you will look at Creative Commons and Copyright.

Our students are not the only ones living in a “copy/paste” culture. We all can benefit from reflect on our responsibilities and rights as creators in the online spaces where we consume, create, and share information. From addressing plagiarism to piracy, students learn about copyright and fair use in the following lessons:

- K-2 My Creative Work
- 3-5 Whose Is It Anyway?
- 6-8 A Creator's Rights
- 9-12 Copyrights and Wrongs

Faculty: Be a positive role model for responsible use of images. Read Find free and Fair Use Photos. The next time you need to find an image for a project, we have put together this Symbaloo Webmix of resources.

Families: Share the Family Tip sheet that go with today's student lessons.
